

Investigate the News

ROOTS and BRANCHES

Write members of your immediate family on your tree. Include any brothers, sisters, parents or grandparents.

Create a tree that represents your community. Draw a tree similar to the one above and write the name of your community below the trunk of a tree.

From your local print and/or online edition, choose important people and places to write below your tree.

What enables your community to grow and thrive? What serves as the base or root for your community tree?

SHARE with friends what you think you can do to improve your community and discuss what they can do on their own and/or working with you and others in the community.